DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1 and 7 recite that “each panel is joined to at least another panel to form a corner with an interior angle”; however, the joining of panels does not appear to form a corner. It appears that the joining of panels results in the formation of a “wall” of panels of indeterminate length, not a corner. Therefor, it is confusing as to how a corner is formed, if one is even being formed at all. Furthermore, it is unsure what the “interior” is without properly defining what is considered the “interior” or “exterior”.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Insofar as understood, claims 1 and 3-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by Dougherty #2,128,740. Dougherty discloses a segment of sheet piling comprising a reinforcement (opposite 20, 21, that is convexly shaped) located at the angle between the panels. The sheet piling member also including male 25 and female connectors 31, and wherein the male connector has a reinforcement area 22 that is triangular shaped.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Insofar as understood, claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dougherty in view of Lewis #5,333,971. Dougherty discloses the claimed invention except for the sheet piling being made from anisotropic material. Lewis teaches that it is known to make sheet piling from anisotropic material such as plastics or fiberglass material as set forth at column 2, lines 26-30. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make sheet piling from anisotropic material, as taught by Lewis in order to provide a more corrosion resistant sheet piling for example.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed 1/25/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's amendment to include the recitation of "to form a corner with an interior angle" was confusing, thereby warranting the 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph rejection. Therefore, insofar as understood, the claims were rejected as stated above.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
